

One World, Many Stories

CHILDREN'S PERFORMER FESTIVAL

- ⇒ HARRIS PARK LEY MEMORIAL PAVILION
- ⇒ PROGRAM TIME: WEDNESDAYS 2:00-2:45
- ⇒ BRING A CHAIR OR BLANKET AND JOIN IN THE FUN.

JUNE 8—AFRICAN ANIMAL TALES AND ART

Come and learn the true stories about cheetahs, giraffes, elephants, mambas and more. Create an African design mask to take home with Mary Tooley.

JUNE 15—THE BUGMAN RETURNS!

Have you ever seen insects close-up that live in our local waters, or insects that live in South America, Africa, or Southeast Asia? Alex will be sharing his impressive collections.. You might even get to hold Madagascar Hissing Cockroaches! Come join the Bugman (AKA-Alex Harman) as he shows you and tells you MANY STORIES about insects found all around our ONE WORLD.

JUNE 22—BEE IN THE FIDDLE

Folklore Village Director, Musician and Storyteller, Doug Miller, will bring his fiddle, musical saw, harmonica and other traditional instruments for this fun and educational program.

JUNE 29—GREEK MYTHOLOGY

Sit back and be entertained as the actors from The Traveling Lantern Theatre Company share some stories from Greek Mythology.

JULY 6—TALES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

Diane Sterba has visited twenty seven different countries in five different continents. Her stories from other lands will help create 'bridges of understanding' among the many different cultures on this planet.

Let's Create Workshops

Program time: Thursdays 10:00-11:00

June 9 – Dream Catchers

Make your own dream catcher to hang over your bed.
Workshop leader: Carol Gleichauf

June 16, 2011 – Beaded Penguins

Learn the technique of beading one of the worlds most famous animals, the Penguin. Workshop leaders: Kim, Emily & Abby Crook.

June 23 – Summertime Marble Magnets

Celebrate summer by making adorable marble magnets. Be as creative & artistic as you want. When you're finished we'll create a Cricut "decorative bag" in which to take them home.
Workshop leaders: Julia and Bethany Harman.

June 30 – Aboriginal X-ray Animal Paintings

No special equipment needed! These aboriginal x-ray animal paintings celebrate an Australian style developed thousands of years ago. Choose from one of the distinctive animals of Australia & create some fun & funky internal designs to describe what's inside.
Workshop leader: Lisa Humke.

July 7 – Safari Bracelets

Create your own bracelet using colorful round & animal pony beads.
Workshop leader: Carol Gleichauf.

July 14 – No workshop

July 21 – Guatemalan Worry Dolls

These international whimsical worry dolls are a replica of a children's toy from Guatemala! The dolls will do the worrying for you. Workshop leader: Carol Gleichauf

July 28 – Fancy Fans

As the summer heats up, you can cool yourself down by creating a personalized Chinese style fan. Explore traditional Chinese images and fan making techniques. You will design the fan as well as paint the designs on it. Workshop leader: Lisa Humke.

August 4 – African Masks

Revel in the ancient awe of African history while you make your own African masks. Workshop leader: Carol Gleichauf

August 11 – Hanging Origami Mobile

11 year old Ryan likes the Japanese art form of Origami because it can be simple or challenging, it lets him be creative, & all he needs is a square piece of paper. Come to his workshop, and learn how to make an origami chain consisting of three origami figures and beads.
Workshop leader: Ryan Ziehr. Assistant: Karren Zimmerman

August 18 – Crystal Growth

Learn about how minerals grow while watching your very own "Rock" Candy crystals grow over a few weeks! In this workshop, we will discuss the different forms that growing mineral crystals can take as well as see some actual minerals growing. Every participant will grow their own sugar "Rock Candy" for a tasty geological treat!
Workshop leader: Mike Barthelmes

- Workshops have limited attendance.
- Registration forms available on June 1, 2011 at the library.
- For more information please ask Carol Gleichauf.
