TUESDAY, JUNE 12—MUSIC AND LAUGHTER FOR KIDS

David Landau offers a upbeat music program that will keep children engaged & constantly thinking. The kids sing some, move some, act some, dance some, shout just a little bit, & laugh a bunch. The adults just sit back & enjoy the show!

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13—STORYWALK™ 1

Join Sarah Pearce from the Driftless Area Land Conservancy to experience two beautiful stories in a whole new way. We will read Rhoda's Rock Hunt by Molly Beth Griffin & A Rock Can Be by Laura Purdie Salas as "StoryWalks™." This self-guided family friendly activity will get you outside exploring as you read. These books, as well as the fresh air & sunshine, are sure to inspire! You'll also have an opportunity to create some unique rock art as part of this week's program.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20—GEOLOGY ROCKS

Kim Anderson from the Cave of the Mounds will help us discover the wonders of geology by exploring the rocks, minerals & fossils of WI! Each child attending will leave with their very own authentic specimen!

TUESDAY, JUNE 26—ROCKS AND MORE

Dan Trocke, member of Badger Lapidary & Geological Society will offer a program about rocks, minerals & fossils for children, young & old. Enjoy & appreciate the beautiful & sometime surprising properties found in the mineral kingdom. The presentation includes hands on demonstrations, an educational picture handout & a souvenir rock or fossil to bring home.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27—THE BEAT GENERATION! DRUM CIRCLES & KITCHEN BANDS FOR KIDS

We got the beat! Drumming sparks creativity & is sure to offer a ton of group fun! Get ready for: talking rhythms, drum-along-sing-alongs & more. John Duggleby's kitchen band raids the pantry for pots, pans, homemade shakers & other found instruments to cook up a freewheeling stew of familiar songs. Be sure to come, as John (the zookeeper for this musical menagerie) rocks some tricked-out instruments.

2018 Let's Create Workshops

Program time: THURSDAYS 10:00-11:00 a.m.

June 14 – Rock Box

With mixed media collage and acrylic paints, participants will decorate a box which can be used to store rocks found in their yard, at Governor Dodge State Park or along country roads. Workshop leader: Kathy Warpinski.

June 21 – Rock the Art Connection

Create a little bit of rock happy art! Design and paint rocks. We will provide paint-friendly rocks and rock-friendly paint. You bring your imagination! Workshop leader: Evy Thuli.

June 28 – CD Scratch Art

Bring those old CDs to life and turn them into a piece of art. Workshop leader: Carol Gleichauf.

July 5 – Rock Guitar Painting

Create your own colorful and expressive guitar painting. You choose how to show your inner rocker. Workshop leader: Lisa Humke.

July 12 – Cosmic Connection

We will use a variety of different materials to make textures and colors to simulate the surface of a planet. Does your planet have big craters, swirling gases, rocky gorges? The result will make an interesting abstract planet surfaces mixed media painting. Workshop leader: Lisa Humke.

July 19 – Colored Rock Mosaic

Using colorful ceramic pieces and aquarium rocks we will mosaic an old book cover or a guitar cut out. Express your own personality with colorful patterns and designs. Workshop leader: Lisa Humke.

July 26 – Pin Strummers

Jam with some Pin Strummers and you'll absolutely love the awesome twang of the bobby pin instruments. Workshop leader: Carol Gleichauf.

- Registered workshops have limited attendance and are located in the library. Start by registering for up to 3 workshops and then place your name on a waiting list for more.
- Workshops are for 8-11 year olds.
