John Newbery Medal Award – is a literary award given by the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC), a division of the American Library Association (ALA), to the author of “the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children.”

Golden Archer Award, begun in 1974, is Wisconsin’s student choice book award. The awards are given in four age level categories – Primary, Intermediate, Middle and High. The nominations list is created by the committee based on titles that are selected and read by students in Wisconsin.
